The Collect of the Day

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Isaiah 65:17-25

For I am about to create new heavens
and a new earth;
the former things shall not be remembered
or come to mind.
But be glad and rejoice forever
in what I am creating;
for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy,
and its people as a delight.
I will rejoice in Jerusalem,
and delight in my people;
no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it,
or the cry of distress.
No more shall there be in it
an infant that lives but a few days,
or an old person who does not live out a lifetime;

for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth,
and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed.
They shall build houses and inhabit them;
they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
They shall not build and another inhabit;
they shall not plant and another eat;
for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be,
and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
They shall not labor in vain,
or bear children for calamity;
for they shall be offspring blessed by the LORD--
and their descendants as well.
Before they call I will answer,
while they are yet speaking I will hear.
The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
the lion shall eat straw like the ox;
but the serpent-- its food shall be dust!
They shall not hurt or destroy
on all my holy mountain, says the LORD.

Canticle 9 The First Song of Isaiah Ecce Deus

(Sung by the Choir)

BCP-86
arr. Fred Goff

Surely, it is God who saves me; *
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense, *
and he will be my Savior.
Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing *
from the springs of salvation.
And on that day you shall say, *
Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name;
Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
see that they remember that his Name is exalted.
Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things, *
and this is known in all the world.
Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, *
for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

2 Thessalonians 3:6-13

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

The Gospel (please stand) Luke 21:5-19

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down."

They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?" And he said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them.

"When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven.

"But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death.

You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls."

Postlude Finale in F Dom Andrew Moore

It has long been the custom at St. John's Church for the congregation to be seated and listen to the Organ Postlude. Please do not feel compelled to do so, but if you prefer to leave immediately after the candles are extinguished, please depart quietly so those who wish to do so may listen prayerfully to the Postlude.

The flowers at the altar are given to the Glory of God and in loving memory of Dorothy Sharp Mangan by her daughters, Susan Burt and DeeAnn Harris, and her grandchildren, Emily and Christopher Burt.

The flowers at the Chancel steps are given by Nancy Schultz Kimball and Gwyneth Schultz Saunders to the glory of God and in loving memory of their parents, the Rev. Cannon Fred B. Schultz and his wife, Marion Schultz.

TODAY, November 17, 2013 - Doug and Theresa VanSant are hosting a luncheon featuring Doug's famous "Angie's Diner" Homemade Chicken Potpie. The potpie will be served after the 10:30 service in the Parish Hall. There is plenty for everyone. You are all urged to come and enjoy the food and fellowship with your Church family.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MUSIC IN TODAY'S LITURGY: Today is the Twenty-sixth Sunday after Pentecost. As we do every week, we select music to correlate with the themes of the readings and prayers appointed for the day. The Canticle setting which the choir sings is a Gregorian tone alternating with chordal verses based on settings by 16th Century Composer, Leonhard Schroeter, and arranged by Fred Goff (b. 1952). The Offering Anthem is by Hall Johnson (1888-1970, one of a number of American composers and arrangers who elevated the African-American spiritual to an art form, comparable in its musical sophistication to the compositions of European Classical composers. This work, while not a true Spiritual, is a work composed by Johnson in the style of a Spiritual. The Organ Prelude is an "aria" for organ (a solo melody, accompanied by quieter registers) by Michael Burkhardt (b.1957), director of worship and the arts at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, Lavonia, MI. The Postlude is by English monastic and priest, composer and church musician, Andrew Moore (b. 1954).

PROSPECTIVE CHOIR & HANDBELL PARTICIPANT: Anyone interested in the St. John's Choir (High School & Adults), the Junior Choristers (grades 3 – 8, unchanged voices) or the Salem Ringers (High School & Adult Handbells) is invited to speak to Bill Clisham, Minister of Music, about details at your convenience. Bill may be contacted by e-mail or phone: wfclish@aol.com or 908-472-7597. Or ... simply come to the organ console following the Postlude.

MUSIC MINISTRY PUBLICATIONS: For anyone who may be interested, there are flyers: Music, Arts & Worship at St. John's, about special music events for the coming year, available in the Parish House and in the Narthex. There are also booklet copies of the complete 2013-2014 Liturgical Music Schedule available in those same locations.
