1 Samuel 15:34-16:13

Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house in Gibeah of Saul. Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, but Samuel grieved over Saul. And the LORD was sorry that he had made Saul king over Israel.

The Lord said to Samuel, "How long will you grieve over Saul? I have rejected him from being king over Israel. Fill your horn with oil and set out; I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite, for I have provided for myself a king among his sons." Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears of it, he will kill me." And the Lord said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to the Lord.' Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do; and you shall anoint for me the one whom I name to you." Samuel did what the Lord commanded, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?" He said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the Lord; sanctify yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice." And he sanctified Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

When they came, he looked on Eliab and thought, "Surely the Lord's anointed is now before the Lord." But the Lord said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him; for the Lord does not see as mortals see; they look on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart." Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, "Neither has the Lord chosen this one." Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, "Neither has the Lord chosen this one." Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, and Samuel said to Jesse, "The Lord has not chosen any of these." Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all your sons here?" And he said, "There remains yet the youngest, but he is keeping the sheep." And Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and bring him; for we will not sit down until he comes here." He sent and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and had beautiful eyes, and was handsome. The Lord said, "Rise and anoint him; for this is the one." Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the presence of his brothers; and the spirit of the Lord came mightily upon David from that day forward. Samuel then set out and went to Ramah.

Psalm 20 Exaudiat te Dominus

BCP-608

(Anglican Chant setting sung by the choir)

Matthew Camidge

- 1 May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble, *
the Name of the God of Jacob defend you;
- 2 Send you help from his holy place *
and strengthen you out of Zion;
- 3 Remember all your offerings *
and accept your burnt sacrifice;
- 4 Grant you your heart's desire *
and prosper all your plans.
- 5 We will shout for joy at your victory
and triumph in the Name of our God; *
may the LORD grant all your requests.
- 6 Now I know that the LORD gives victory to his anointed; *
he will answer him out of his holy heaven,
with the victorious strength of his right hand.
- 7 Some put their trust in chariots and some in horses, *
but we will call upon the Name of the LORD our God.
- 8 They collapse and fall down, *
but we will arise and stand upright.

9 O LORD, give victory to the king *
and answer us when we call.

2 Corinthians 5:6-10, [11-13], 14-17

We are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord-- for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil.

[Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade others; but we ourselves are well known to God, and I hope that we are also well known to your consciences. We are not commending ourselves to you again, but giving you an opportunity to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast in outward appearance and not in the heart. For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God; if we are in our right mind, it is for you.] For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

Gradual Hymn "God Moves in a Mysterious Way" (v.1-3) H-677

The Gospel (please stand) Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come."

He also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Anthem Ave Verum Corpus, K.618 Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

*Ave verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine:
Vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine:
Cujus latus perforatum, unda fluxit sanguine:
Esto nobis praegustatum in martis examine.*

Hail, true Body, born of the virgin mary:
Thou who truly suffered, sacrificed upon the cross for mankind:
Thou whose side was riven, whence the stream of blood did flow:
O may thou, dear Lord, be given at death's hour to be my food.

Presentation tune: Old Hundredth

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise God, all creatures here below.
Praise God above, ye heav'nly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen!*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

MUSIC IN THE LITURGY: Today we make “Ordinary Time” extraordinary. The choir will sing, as part of our Eucharistic liturgy, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart’s Missa Brevis in D Major, K. 194, in place of those “ordinary” parts of the liturgy normally sung or said by the entire congregation. We pray that you will associate yourselves with the liturgy none-the-less, and participate vicariously as you meditate on the texts sung by the choir, accompanied by strings and organ. The choir will sing these portions of the liturgy in the original Latin, but the texts may be found in the BCP in the normal places within the Holy Eucharist – Rite II. Here are the page numbers for the various liturgical texts:

Kyrie & Gloria in Excelssis (BCP p. 356)

Credo (BCP p. 358-359)

Sanctus (BCP p, 362)

Agnus Dei (BCP p.337)

A special thank you goes to the choir’s professional choristers who also serve as soloists today in the Missa Brevis. Cassandra Moore (Soprano), Gwen Norton (Alto), Nate Gable (Tenor), and Don Layton (Bass).

We also welcome to our service this morning guest musicians: Kathleen Hastings (Violin I), Amy Weckesser (Violin II), Cheryl Everill (Cello), and Joanne Owen, Minister of Music Emerita (Organ). We wish to thank them and, especially, to thank all of the supporters of the Music Ministry at St. John’s whose generous donations made possible this special liturgy.

SPECIAL ANNIVERSARY LITURGY: Next Sunday, June 24, is The Feast of the Birth of St. John the Baptist. It will be St. John's Church's 290th anniversary. In celebration of this festival, the Choir will sing This is the Record of John by Orlando Gibbons, with Gwen Norton, mezzo-soprano soloist. The Choir will also sing a new Communion Anthem: You Satisfy the Hungry Heart by Linda Shute. It will be the last Choral Eucharist of the season before the choir takes a much deserved break during the months of July and August. The Organ Prelude and Postlude next Sunday will also be rather special (and a bit longer than usual) so arrive early and depart quietly if you must leave early to get a head start at the picnic. The organ music will be Johann Sebastian Bach's Prelude (Concertato) & Fugue in D Major, BWV 532.

Also remember the St. John's Day Picnic after the second service. Hot Dogs, Hamburgers, Buns and a beverage will be provided. Please bring your favorite side dish to share. Everyone should come and enjoy our famous St. John's recipes and fellowship.

It is traditional to hold classes to prepare both adults and teens for confirmation and to provide a forum for persons interested in what the Episcopal Church believes and teaches. If you are questioning, seeking, interested in joining, or ready to make an "affirmation of faith", please use the sign up sheets and informational questions that are on clip boards in the Parish House and Chapel. We are planning an eight to ten-week course and you can list your best day and time for these lessons.

Thank you. Again you have been unbelievably generous with your donations of food to stock our Food Pantry. We especially still need juice and powdered juice mix, also fruit, canned meats/tuna, and pasta, like beefaroni, etc. However, all donations are needed, used, and greatly appreciated.

The Salem Family Success Center at 14 New Market Street is asking for donations of gently worn, freshly laundered clothing in all sizes for men, women and children for their clothing closet. They are a non-profit working to build a network of support for the families of Salem County. See the ad on the hall board. Items may be dropped off at their location, or call for pick up [856-935-0944, X2113 or 2114).
